The 1978 Florida State Football Press Guide was prepared by the Seminole sports information staff. Sports Information Director Mark Carlson served as editor for the publication while assistant director Mike Parsons and assistant Wayne Hogan were contributing writers. Tallahassee artist Jim Grosvenor designed the front cover featuring All-American candidate Willie Jones. Contributing photographers included the FSU Photo Lab, Tallahassee Democrat, Tampa Tribune, Joseph Millard and Barry Mittan. This book is available to the public at a cost of $2.00.

This public document was promulgated at an annual cost of $5,031.00 or, $1.67 per copy to serve as a handbook for football to acquaint the media and fans with the 1978 Florida State University football team and coaches.

MEMO TO PRESS-RADIO-TV

This handbook has been prepared by the Florida State University sports information office to assist the media during the Seminoles 1978 football season. For additional information contact:

CREDENTIALS: Space for the working press, radio, TV and scouts will be allocated by the Sports Information Office. All requests for working credentials should be directed to this office in writing at least two weeks prior to the game. The Florida State press box is located on the west side of Doak Campbell Stadium with elevator service from the ground to all three of its levels. All media representatives and scouts should enter through the Press Gate north of the elevator.

POLICIES: Working press will be admitted to the press deck, second level, where approximately 90 seats are available. Credentials will be issued according to the following criteria: a) local newspapers, wire services, national publications, newspapers from opponent's area, and student newspapers from FSU and opponent's school; b) other daily newspapers with preference to those which regularly cover FSU; c) radio and television personnel not actually broadcasting, but considered reporting (seats will be provided in the stands); d) scouts.

RADIO-TV: The first level of the press box is designated for use by radio and television broadcasting crews, home and visiting coaches and stadium operations. Each booth is fully enclosed and sound-proof.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Only accredited photographers will be issued credentials. The photo deck, or roof, of the press box offers an unobstructed view for TV, movie and still cameras. Dark room space is also available in the stadium. Photographers will be allowed on the sidelines only after checking in at the press box and obtaining a special field photo pass.

SERVICES: Play-by-play, halftime and complete statistics will be provided. When possible post game comments from the coaches and players will be available. Refreshments are available on all decks.

TELECOPIERS: An independent telecopier service will be available for each game for a nominal fee. Please contact the Sports Information Office in advance. If you plan to use your own telecopier and phone, please have them placed in the telecopier area of the press deck.

TELEPHONE: Telephone service should be secured directly through Centel Telephone Company of Florida in Tallahassee (904/222-2236). Have them contact the Sports Information Office for location.

OUTLOOK

FSU NO SURPRISE IN '78

Things are not going to be the same at Florida State this fall.

Last season the Seminoles surprised folks. They caught enough opponents off guard to go 9-2 in the regular season, earning a Tangerine Bowl berth where the Garnet and Gold routed Texas Tech, 40-17.

Seminole chief Bobby Bowden knows, however, that the Tribe faces a different sort of task in '78.

"We ain't going to surprise nobody," Bobby drawls using his best Alabama accent. "They'll know we're going to throw the football from anywhere on the field.

"We are now the one to beat. And the guys have to know they have lost one element. But I don't worry about that. I just call attention to it."

Those 1977 accomplishments have been well-chronicled. The 10 victories represent the most ever by a Division I school currently playing football in Florida. That mark boosted the Seminoles to an 11th place ranking in the final United Press International poll and 14th place in the Associated Press Top 20.

Now a new season is upon us.

"Right, it is time for us to forget 1977 and look to 1978, difficult as it is," says Bowden. "We've gone from the outhouse to the penthouse real quick . . . but that stroll back to the outhouse can be just as short.

"I see two things now that I didn't see this time last year. I see our players with more confidence. Last year we only thought we could win. Now we KNOW we can win.

"With the good season of last year that means more pressure now. It's only natural because now that we've won people are going to be coming to get us and now we'll have to do something about it. Last year we were 8-2 and still considered the underdogs. We won't be underdogs often this fall."

Bowden candidly admits this football team has promise.

"We're not as good right now," says the third-year mentor. "But by our sixth game we should be pretty good. Still we've got to find some answers. Maybe they're there but we didn't find them in spring practice."

The coaching staff believes it starts fall practice with seven spots settled on both the offensive and defensive units. The other four starting slots are up for grabs.

"Last year we returned with almost the entire defensive team intact, but with questionmarks surrounding the quarterback position and spots in the offensive line," Bowden recalls.

"This year we return with questionmarks on offense at tailback, both guard spots and knowing we don't have enough depth among the receivers. Over on defense we still need to find one tackle, two linebackers and one person in the defensive secondary.

"Depth will likely be a major problem throughout the entire squad. We will be breaking in a punter for the first time in three years, too."

Another major concern is a lack of seniors. The fall roster lists just six, five of whom will likely draw starting assignments.

"I'm very concerned about the lack in numbers among our senior class. I question whether we have enough seniors to provide the leadership a good team needs to win close ball games," says Bowden.

"Still this team should have enough skilled people to whet the appetite. The key to us having a successful season is whether we can get a good start.

"The schedule will be tougher with the addition of Syracuse, Houston, Pittsburgh and Navy. But it's the type of schedule that will provide us with national recognition if we win."

"A lot of our success depends on how well we can reach the oneness of a team like we had last year. There is no way we have the talent to individualize."

SEMINOLE OFFENSE '78

By GEORGE HAFFNER
Offensive Coordinator

A big concern of Florida State's offensive coaching staff is to find replacements for wide receivers Roger Overby and Mike Shumann plus tailback Larry Key, who were the 'big play' people for us last year.

Will our production this season come up to the standards these three guys set last year?

Depth is a big question mark. At several of the skilled positions it looks like our backup help might have to come from untested freshmen.

This portion of our football team is going to need leadership from our underclassmen. Try this one on for size—among the first 27 players on the offensive depth chart there is only one senior listed, Nat Henderson, a tackle who started last fall. That frightens me to death. Last year we were young, but there were a lot of seniors sprinkled through the offensive units who were a calming influence on the youngsters and helped us keep our composure when things got rocky.

Looking at the various offensive segments I see it this way.

LINE—In center Gil Wesley and tackles Ken Lanier and Nat Henderson we have people with experience. My concern is at guard where four fellows—Mike Good and Greg Futch at quick guard and Brent Brock and Lee Adams at tight guard—will start fall practice battling for the starting positions. Nobody has a starting job locked up. We've moved Adams from tight end to give depth at this area.

WIDE RECEIVERS—Kurt Unglaub and Jackie Flowers are number one. They are the only experienced people we have. They must stay healthy and perform to the best of their abilities. Unglaub is coming off an injury (ankle) that plagued him all last season. He looked good in spring practice until he separated a shoulder. Flowers looks like he might be coming into his own. Jackie had an outstanding spring. He got plenty of work because we didn't have a lot of receivers. A walk-on, Phil Williams, and ex-running back Sam Platt are the backups. The depth situation at our receiver positions is very critical.

TIGHT END—With Grady King, a six-game starter last year, we are pretty stable here. Bill Keck, who had injury problems as a freshman, is a good backup. Keck had a good spring game—seven catches for 100 yards—and is a more physical tight end than King. Again, like the wide receiver spots, we are hurting for depth.

QUARTERBACK—If Wally Woodham recovers from knee surgery, I believe we'll have the best one-two quarterbacking combination in the country. Jimmy Jordan made progress in the spring because he was out there every day. He has an outstanding ability to throw and has improved his knowledge of the passing game. He worked on his weaknesses in the spring and improved. Woodham didn't practice a down in the spring and that will hurt him. Still, we know that he's capable. With him as our starting quarterback last year we were 6-1. When Jordan started we were 4-1 so there isn't much difference there. We need to have Wally for his leadership abilities. He always has a good grasp of what's going on while he's playing and is a good percentage passer. We also have sophomore Rick Stockstill, who was able to get plenty of work every day during the spring. He made tremendous improvement from week-to-week. Rick is going to help us.

RUNNINGBACKS—After 20 days of spring, we still can't point to any individual and say "he's our number one running back." Mark Lyles, who started nine of 11 games last year, is in a dead heat with sophomore Ernie Sims for the number one fullback spot. At tailback, Greg Ramsey had a good spring and is probably slightly ahead of Homes Johnson and Everett DeVeaux, who showed good potential. Johnson can start faster and did some explosive things in the spring while DeVeaux came on strong in the last two weeks to show us he was a strong, solid runner. Keith Kennedy, a junior, is going to be a good utility player for us at running back. He always seems to be at the right place at the right time.

KICKING GAME—This should be solid with either Dave Cappelletti, a two-year vet, or Bill Capece handling field goals and PATs. They both have good legs. We are hoping the punting game will be better. A freshman, Rohn Stark, who was with us in the spring, has the inside track there. Punting is an area where we definitely need improvement.

SEMINOLE DEFENSE '78

By JACK STANTON
Defensive Coordinator

Florida State's defense for 1978 will be quite different from 1977. At the start of '77 practice we knew we were an improved defensive football team over the one we had the previous season. Starting '78 we know the defense is NOT as strong as it was last season.

The difference this year from last season is that we are not as fast and have lost a tremendous amount of experience. At the start of '77 we were using just one player—Ron Simmons—who lacked a great deal of college experience. Later in the year Louis Richardson stepped in at defensive tackle under much the same circumstance.

For this season, it looks like there will be as many as five positions—left tackle, the two linebackers and two secondary spots—where players with very little college experience will be starting.

One thing we do have going for us is that the attitude is SUPER. That could get us over some rough spots early in the year while the younger players are being tested and learning their way around the college football wars.

Looking at the various defensive segments I see it this way.

LINE—If we can find a left tackle we can be in pretty good shape end-to-end. The ends (Willie Jones and Scott Warren) are both veteran starters. Tackle Walter Carter has played two years and shown he is capable of playing major college football. Ron Simmons (noseguard) showed us last season that he is good at his position and has the ability to be great. Where the line is concerned we are not in bad shape. It could be the strongest portion of our defensive football team.

LINEBACKERS—This is a very questionable area for our football team. I can honestly say that starting fall practice we don't know who will start for us. The only experienced person we have there is David Hanks, a fifth year senior, who has only played in backup roles prior to this season. Paul Piurowski and Arthur Scott both have potential, but lack experience. We are moving Reggie Herring from defensive back to one of these positions and are definitely going to give the incoming freshmen a look. That doesn't mean we are giving up on the people we have here now, only that we want to look at the folks coming in to see if they can help out. But, playing linebacker as a freshman on our football team, with our scheme of defense, is one of the hardest assignments we could ask a freshman to undertake.

DEFENSIVE BACKFIELD—We are losing experience here with the graduation of Bobby Jackson, a four-year starter drafted by the New York Jets, and Nat Terry, a two-year starter picked by the Pittsburgh Steelers. We are lucky that the NCAA passed the freshman red-shirt rule which gave us two-year starter Mike Kincaid for another year. That provides us with additional experience back there to go with Ivory Joe Hunter, a two-year starter. Bobby Butler, a sophomore, is going to step in and take one of the positions and that leaves only one slot to fill. Hopefully, one of two junior college transfers—Ozzie Harrell or Willie Flowers—will step to the front. It's possible a freshman is going to be good enough to work his way into a starting role.

BOBBY BOWDEN Head Football Coach

"He made us into believers, and he made us into winners."
—Roger Overby, Wide Receiver '76

Perhaps the above quote from Florida State wide receiver Roger Overby best expresses the attitude of players and fans about Seminole mentor Bobby Bowden.

"Thanks for Accepting the Challenge, You Are The One."
—Burt Reynolds

Since his arrival on the Florida State campus in January, 1976, the Birmingham, Ala., native has turned the Seminole grid program from shambles to one of the rising stars on the collegiate scene. After FSU went 4-29 in three previous campaigns, Bowden has guided the Seminoles to marks of 5-6 and 10-2.

That 10-2 ledger included: (1) a 9-2 regular season record; (2) an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl where the Seminoles smothered Texas Tech, 40-17, (3) national ranking in both the United Press International (11th) and Associated Press (14th) wire service polls.

"Bowden, his staff, his players and his partisans have simply had a heavenly winter and spring."

—Tom McEwen, Sports Editor,
Tampa Tribune

Naturally, the credit for the successes goes to Bowden. He, however, downplays his responsibility.

"The desires of the players to right a wrong they were not happy with is the reason for our winning," says Bowden. "They were not happy with what they were doing previously.

"We also won because of the diligent work of our assistant coaches. Too much of the credit has gone to me when it has been the assistants, trainers, doctors and managers as well as a Florida State administration who have all been part of our success."

If you know Bobby Bowden, that is a typical statement.

Nobody, however, should really be surprised that Bowden has put the Seminole program back on the winning track.

Bowden has a history of success in his previous stops. He had head coaching experience at four year schools Howard (now Sanford) and West Virginia, before agreeing to accept the assignment of rebuilding the Seminoles. Starting 1978 his overall record of 88-40 carries a .687 winning percentage. That mark ranks 10th among major college head coaches.

Enthusiasm and discipline are key words which exemplify Bowden's overall attitude, both on and off the field.

"I believe in discipline and enthusiasm in everything you do in life," Bowden says," and you coach what you believe. If we can be enthusiastic in the little things we do, it will carry over to a winning season.

"But don't get me wrong about discipline. I believe in letting the players know who is boss, and I believe in some sacrifice and devotion. But discipline can only go so far.

"Heck, I've always said that if short hair and perfect manners won football games, the Army-Navy game would be played every year for the national championship."

Bowden's coaching philosophy is quite simple.

"I believe in blocking and tackling," he says. "Everything else in this game is secondary; blocking and tackling will cause wins."

Winning means a lot to Bowden, an avid golfer, who since moving to Tallahassee has improved his game to the point where he now consistently shoots in the low 80s.

"I don't believe in playing without a scoreboard," says Bowden. "I don't feel there is any accomplishment with a tie. I think if one of my teams was playing Notre Dame for the national title and I had the choice of winning or losing or going for the tie, I would go for the win."

National championship was not a term mentioned with a whole lot of frequency at Florida State until the last few months. Bowden explains it cautiously.

"A national championship is the ultimate in coaching, but I must be realistic," says Bowden. "Every year we set new goals with our team. Last season our first objective was landing a spot in the top 20. Then we wanted a bowl bid.

"Now after getting past those goals we can begin worrying about the Top 10. We need a consistent winning record so that we can be a legitimate contender each year for national honors."

Bowden is more than just a football coach. He is also a deeply religious individual who, when he's not on the road recruiting, can often be found at a church podium in Tallahassee or one of the surrounding communities on Sunday mornings.

"I don't preach," Bowden says. "I'm not qualified to preach. I like to share my experiences with God, though, especially with young people.

"God is an integral part of my life. I look to God for guidance but firmly believe God helps those who help themselves. Man must help himself, but also seek guidance.

"Coaching, in a way, has many of the same traits as evangelism. You attempt to make your point, relay your beliefs and encourage your audience to take part in all this. Football or religion, it's much the same."

"There appears to be enormous substance to this man, Robert Cleckler Bowden. The family, the church and the vocation. Florida State has more than a football coach who can go 10-2 and beat the Gators, 37-9."

—Hubert Mizell, Sports Editor,
ST. PETERSBURG TIMES

JERRY BRUNER FLORIDA STATE '65 Third Season on Staff

A Florida State alumnus, Jerry Bruner returned to his alma mater three years ago to coach the Seminole offensive linemen.

Bruner, a member of Bobby Bowden's coaching staff for the past eight years, joined the FSU head coach when he moved to Tallahassee in 1976. Bruner teams with his former college coach, Bob Harbison, in coaching the offensive guards, tackles and centers.

The Evansville, Ind., native came to Florida State in 1960 and earned three varsity letters for the Tribe playing offensive guard, middle guard and linebacker.

After receiving his degree in 1965, Bruner became an assistant coach at Daytona Beach Mainland High School for two seasons.

He moved to Kansas State in 1968 as a graduate assistant under ex-Seminole Vince Gibson, now head coach at Louisville, before joining the KSU varsity staff as offensive line coach a year later.

In 1970 he joined Bowden's staff at West Virginia where he spent six seasons coaching the offensive linemen.

Jerry and his wife, Kathy, have two children.

JIM GLADDEN WILLIAM JEWELL '64 Fourth Season on Staff

Jim Gladden came to Florida State to coach the defensive ends after a very successful career as a high school coach.

He has the enviable chore of coaching the likes of Seminole All-American candidates Willie Jones and Scott Warren during the 1978 campaign.

A native of Springfield, Mo., Gladden spent 15 years coaching in the prep ranks before coming to FSU in 1975 as an assistant in charge of the junior varsity program.

Gladden attended William Jewell College in Liberty, Mo., and was tabbed as an all-conference end before graduating in 1962.

After spending three years as an assistant coach at high schools in the Kansas City and St. Louis areas, Gladden moved to Kentucky where he was named high school coach of the year in 1970.

He spent the 1972 season coaching in Tennessee before taking over the helm of the Brooksville, Fla., High School program for two years prior to joining the FSU staff.

Jim and his wife, Patricia, have two children.

GEORGE HAFFNER McNEESE STATE '66 Third Season on Staff

George Haffner, considered by many to have one of the most brilliant and imaginative offensive minds in college football, serves as the Seminole's offensive coordinator.

The Chicago native who works specifically with the FSU quarterbacks and directs the offensive scheme from the press box, has coached at McNeese State, Iowa State, Pittsburgh and the high school level before joining FSU.

Haffner signed a football scholarship at Notre Dame and lettered two years for the Fighting Irish before going into military service. After his discharge from the Army he transferred to McNeese State.

Haffner began his coaching career as the quarterback-receiver coach at McNeese and then spent two seasons coaching at Lake Charles (La.) High School before Johnny Majors summoned him to join his staff at Iowa State in 1969.

He quickly became offensive coordinator at Iowa State in 1971 and followed Majors to Pittsburgh in 1973 in the same capacity.

George and his wife, Norberta, have two children.

BOB HARBISON INDIANA '48 30th Season on Staff

Bob Harbison has certainly earned the title as the Dean of the college coaches.

Harbison, who joined the Florida State football staff in 1948, is in his 30th year as a Seminole assistant coach. He has spent all but two seasons with FSU since it began its football program in 1947.

During his three decades, Harbison has coached offense and defense, has been to all the nine bowl games and is now serving under his seventh head coach. He previously worked under Don Veller, Tom Nugent, Perry Moss, Bill Peterson, Larry Jones and Darrell Mudra.

Harbie currently coaches the offensive linemen.

Over the years he has developed many outstanding offensive and defensive linemen. His 1964 line, tabbed the "Magnificent Seven" was considered by many to be FSU's finest.

A graduate of Indiana, Harbie played offensive end and defensive line for the late Bo McMillin and finished his collegiate career with a performance in the Blue-Gray game.

Bob and his wife, Jane, have three children.

GEORGE HENSHAW WEST VIRGINIA '70 Third Season on Staff

A member of Bobby Bowden's coaching staff for the past six years, George Henshaw coaches the Florida State defensive line.

Henshaw, who also served under Bowden at West Virginia, coaches the defensive tackles and middle guards.

A native of Midlothian, Va., Henshaw was a three year starter at defensive tackle for West Virginia and served as co-captain his senior season. That season the Mountaineers went 10-1 and defeated South Carolina in the Peach Bowl.

Henshaw was picked to the Post-1950 all-time West Virginia football team along with making honorable mention All-America honors. He was selected All-Southern Conference prior to WVU's departure from that league.

Following graduation in 1970, Henshaw became a graduate assistant at WVU and in 1972 coached the Mountaineer junior varsity to a 3-1 season.

George is married to the former Kathleen McComell.

NICK KISH BUFFALO '69 Third Season on Staff

Nick Kish, a former New York high school coach, is in his third season of coaching the Florida State running backs.

Kish joined the Seminoles coaching staff in 1977 after a very successful four year stint at Grover Cleveland High School in Buffalo, N.Y. His four year record was 29-2 and included a 28 game winning streak.

His teams captured city championships in 1973, '74 and '75 and were ranked among New York's Top 10 prep schools in 1974 and '75.

Kish began his collegiate playing career as a wing back for three years at Syracuse. He played on the Orangemen's team with NFL star Larry Csonka. He transferred to the University of Buffalo in 1969 where he was defensive captain and was selected the Bull's most valuable player.

The Amherst, N.Y., native graduated from Buffalo in 1969 and received his master's in '72.

Nick and his wife, Pat, have one child.

GENE McDOWELL FLORIDA STATE '63 10th Season on Staff

Gene McDowell, a former Florida State All-American linebacker, has spent the past 15 years coaching football, most recently directing the Seminole linebackers.

McDowell, in his second stint on the Florida State staff, has experience as a collegiate, high school and military coach. He began his career shortly after graduating from FSU in 1963 as head coach of the Army Ranger military team.

After his discharge in '65 he returned to Florida State as a graduate assistant before taking over the freshman team for two seasons. He spent the 1968-69 campaigns as recruiting coordinator for coach Bill Peterson.

McDowell spent the next four seasons as a receiver and defensive end coach at Kansas State under Vince Gibson.

In 1974 he returned to Tallahassee to coach the Tribe's defensive ends and remains on the staff coaching linebackers.

A native of Quincy, Fla., McDowell lettered three years at Florida State and was selected to the AP third team All-America after his senior year.

KENT SCHOOLFIELD FLORIDA A&M '70 Third Season on Staff

Kent Schoolfield, a former football and track star at crosstown Florida A&M, is in his third season of coaching the Seminole receiving corps.

The Columbus, Ohio, native came to FSU in 1976 to join Bobby Bowden's staff after two seasons as an assistant football and track coach at Miami Central High School.

After a brilliant high school football and track career, Schoolfield attended Florida A&M in Tallahassee where he again excelled in two sports. He spent his freshman year at defensive back but found a home at wide receiver his remaining three years.

Schoolfield graduated from FAMU in 1970 and spent the next year in professional football, splitting his time between the Boston Patriots of the NFL and the Continental League's Pottstown Firebirds.

Then came a two year tour of duty in the Army before he returned to his alma mater in 1973 as a graduate assistant in football and track.

JACK STANTON N.C. STATE '61 Third Season on Staff

Jack Stanton, an experienced coach with a keen sense for the defensive portion of the game, serves as defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the Seminoles.

The Carnegie, Pa., native played a key role in the success of the FSU defensive unit last fall which ranked among the nation's best.

Stanton began his coaching career in the high school ranks as an assistant coach in Louisville, Ky., and Wheeling, W. Va., and later as a head coach at Bishop Ireton in Alexandria, Va. He soon moved to George Washington University for one season before returning to his alma mater, North Carolina State, for the next five seasons.

Stanton was lured to Tallahassee in 1973 to become defensive backfield coach at FSU but left after one campaign to join the North Carolina staff. Bobby Bowden brought him back to FSU in 1976.

A two-way halfback at N.C. State before graduating in 1961, Stanton spent the 1961 season in professional football playing for Toronto and Pittsburgh and 1962 with the old Louisville team.

Jack and his wife, Ruth, have four children.

DON FAULS ITHACA '48 21st Season on Staff

Athletic trainers are known for being very popular with the athletes they work with and Florida State's Don Fauls is no exception.

To Seminole players and coaches since 1954, he's been a respected friend and confidant as well as the man who cares for their injuries.

Affectionately known as the "Rooster", Fauls has been associated directly with Florida State for 21 years. He left the department for a three and one-half year stint in private business only to return in 1975.

A native of Ithaca, N.Y., Fauls came to FSU after serving as trainer for professional baseball teams in Greensboro, N.C., and Omaha, Neb. He has worked as a trainer for the U.S. Pan American team and was a member of the Olympic Trainers Selection Committee. He also served as an assistant coach with the Tribe's baseball team for eight years.

Don graduated from Ithaca College in 1948 where he lettered in baseball and basketball. He and his wife, Marguerite, have three children.

JOHN MOONEY FLORIDA STATE '76 Third Season on Staff

John Mooney joined the Florida State athletic staff as assistant trainer shortly after his graduation three years ago.

Besides his close association with the FSU football team as chief aide to head trainer Don Fauls, Mooney works directly with the Seminole basketball team. He and Fauls also oversee a staff of student trainers in their work with FSU's other athletic teams.

A 1976 graduate of Florida State, Mooney spent his undergraduate years as a student assistant trainer learning the trade from Fauls. He landed the full time assistant's position in '76.

John, a native of Rogersville, Tenn., is married to the former Marilyn West.

FRANK DeBORD VIRGINIA TECH '42 10th Season on Staff

As equipment manager, Frank DeBord serves the Seminoles in a wide variety of ways.

He is responsible for the supervision of the football gear, managing the many practice fields and overseeing the beautiful new football fieldhouse.

A native of Marion, Va., DeBord has been a member of the Seminole athletic staff for 10 years. He worked as assistant equipment manager for one year before moving into his present position in 1970.

He graduated from Virginia Tech in 1942 where he lettered three years in football and wrestling. Following his graduation he served as assistant football coach at Franklin (Va.) High School and also played two years with the Norfolk Neptunes of the Continental League.

Frank and his wife, Marian, have three children.

RIGAS, DMITRI—Noseguard, 6-2, 210, Sophomore, Augusta, Ga.—was named MVP of the '77 defensive scout team . . . has had various injuries since coming to FSU including ankle, knee and shoulder . . . because of the injuries coaches have been unable to judge his true abilities . . . noseguard might not be his position . . . a business major . . . born January 3, 1958 . . . parents: Theophilos and Helen R. Rigas.

SANDERS, CHIP—Fullback, 5-10, 190, Senior, Macon, Ga.—in the team "Superstars" competition he finished with the seventh best overall rating . . . has been used sparingly thus far in Seminoles career . . . three-year totals show three rushes for one yard plus two more receptions for 31 additional yards . . . did catch a 44-yard TD pass from Wally Woodham in Tangerine Bowl for FSU's final six-pointer . . . a marketing major . . . born December 14, 1956 . . . parents: Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Sanders.

SCOTT, ARTHUR—Linebacker, 6-2, 222, Sophomore, Tampa, Fla.—after a red-shirt season in '77 he has three years remaining . . .

Ed Richardson

Chip Sanders

Ron Simmons

linebacker might not be his collegiate position . . . coaches were thinking in the summer about the possibility of switching him to tackle . . . has the nickname of "The Hammer" because of the way he hits people . . . has fully recovered from knee surgery of last fall . . . big things are expected of this youngster . . . born September 1, 1958.

SIMMONS, RON—Noseguard, 6-2, 225, Sophomore, Warner Robins, Ga.—no freshman has ever made the impact on the Florida State program that this youngster did last season . . . made the FOOTBALL NEWS first team Freshman All-America team and was that newspaper's Freshman Defensive Lineman of the Year . . . following the North Texas State game where he had five sacks along with 10 solos and nine assists, he was named Associated Press Lineman of the Week for the nation . . . the same week he was United Press International and SPORTS ILLUSTRATED Defensive Player of the Week . . . was an honorable mention All-American for both Associated Press and FOOTBALL NEWS . . . sacked opposing quarterbacks 12 times for 117 yards . . . had 13 other tackles for 24 yards in losses . . . Bobby Bowden says: "The only thing Ron had against him making All-American last year was that he was a freshman. I'm usually reluctant to praise freshmen and like to see older players get the recognition. But after seeing him perform for 11 games I had to praise him. I was coaching at West Virginia when Dorsett came on the scene at Pitt. Ron Simmons made the same contribution here that Dorsett did as a freshman at Pitt. Simmons is the Dorsett of our defense and is turning our program around like Dorsett did at Pitt" . . . bench presses 475 pounds and lifts 555 pounds from half squat, both tops for the team . . . also runs the 40 in 4.56, fourth best on team . . . undecided on college major . . . born May 15, 1959 . . . father: Jimmy Womack

1977 IN REVIEW

FLORIDA STATE 35, SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI 6

HATTIESBURG, Miss., (Sept. 10)—Throughout pre-season practice it was the offense which drew the positive reviews from the Florida State training camp. The defense according to observers was suspect.

So guess what happens? Yes, that's right, it was the defense which kept FSU in its opening victory (35-6) over Southern Mississippi until the offense could become untracked.

It was the defense that gave the Seminoles their first touchdown of the season. With the Garnet and Gold trailing 3-0, freshman noseguard Ron Simmons, playing his first collegiate game, blocked a Golden Eagle punt that was picked up by end Scott Warren and carried two yards for six points. Dave Cappelen's kick made it 7-3.

Southern Mississippi came back to score three more points before the half, but that was it for the night. The Seminoles, however, added seven points in the third quarter and added to the cushion with a 21-point fourth quarter.

As expected, the FSU offense centered around the pass. Quarterbacks Jimmy Jordan and Wally Woodham, both sophomores, combined to complete 19 of 32 passes for 265 yards. Most of the damage was done by Jordan, making his first collegiate start, who hit for 14 of 26 accounting for 202 yards and two touchdowns.

A total of 10 players caught at least one pass. The leader was Mike Shumann, who grabbed four for 80 yards. Greg Lazzaro and Mark Lyles each had three receptions while Jackie Flowers picked up two.

The victory was the first ever in six tries for the Seminoles here. Their best previous effort was a 0-0 deadlock in 1963. The win also snapped a four-game losing streak for FSU in opening games.

FLORIDA STATE 18, KANSAS STATE 10

MANHATTAN, Kan., (Sept. 17)—Florida State's winning streak over a two-year period reached five games as the Seminoles battled back from deficits of 7-0 and 10-8 to bump Kansas State, 18-10.

A stingy Seminole defense kept the Big Eight Conference member Wildcats in check throughout the afternoon. In fact, the only K-State TD came on a blocked punt when the Seminole defense wasn't even on the field. And, the Wildcat field goal in the fourth quarter was set up by a pass interception.

Florida State got on the scoreboard with 7:59 remaining in the third quarter when Mike Shumann caught a nine-yard TD pass from QB Jimmy Jordan. Shumann also caught Jordan's conversion pass that made it 8-7.

Only 36 seconds had passed in the fourth quarter when Kansas State got its go-ahead field goal by Chuck Thompson. A field goal by Dave Cappelen with 6:58 left put FSU back in the lead and the visiting 'Noles, who were playing their second road game, added some insurance with 2:17 showing on the clock with Jordan finding Shumann on a 36-yard scoring strike.

Seminole defenders gave K-State just 173 yards total offense. That total included 101 along the ground on 48 attempts and another 72 through the air. FSU, meanwhile, was compiling 363 total offense yards—138 rushing and another 225 passing. The passing yards came with Jordan completing 16 of 37. His favorite targets were Mike Shumann (five catches), Jackie Flowers (four) and Larry Key (three).

MIAMI 23, FLORIDA STATE 17

TALEHAASSEE, Fla., (Sept. 24)—Miami's Hurricanes pulled a Florida State.

Through its last five games—two this season and three last—the Seminoles had come-from-behind to gain victories. This time it was Miami's turn. Trailing 17-10 starting the fourth quarter the Hurricanes put 13 points on the board in the final stanza and left Tallahassee with a 23-17 victory, their first win of the young season.

Although Miami scored 10 points in the first quarter, Seminole fans were not worried. And, they shouldn't have been as the Seminoles picked up 11 points in the second quarter to take an 11-10 lead at intermission.

FSU hiked that cushion to 17-10 in the opening 4:19 of the second half after junior running back Greg Ramsey rumbled 16 yards for six points. The conversion was muffed.

That, however, is where the Seminole problems began. FSU had trouble moving the sticks the rest of the quarter while Miami was getting cranked up. Early in the last quarter the 'Canes drove 71 yards in seven plays for a TD and Chris Dennis booted the PAT that tied the count.

Seconds later a Jimmy Jordan pass was intercepted at the Seminole 47. Miami reached the FSU 30 before the drive stalled and Dennis, who had beaten the Seminoles in the closing seconds at Doak Campbell two years earlier, kicked what proved to be the winning field goal. Dennis then added an insurance field goal with 2:09 remaining after FSU turned the ball over on downs at its 40.

FLORIDA STATE 25, OKLAHOMA STATE 17

STILLWATER, Okla., (Oct. 1)—Florida State came-from-behind on a Big Eight Conference team for the second time in three weeks and bumped the league's defending co-champion, Oklahoma State, 25-17.

This was supposed to be a day for Oklahoma State running back Terry Miller, a Heisman Trophy candidate, to run wild. He wasn't slowed down much—156 yards in 26 carries, but the most impressive runner this afternoon was Seminole Larry Key.

Key, a senior, totaled 259 yards in all-purpose running. He gained 127 rushing with a school record 32 attempts. He also caught three passes for 72 yards and one touchdown and added another 60 yards with a kickoff return.

That performance earned Key honors as the Associated Press Back of the Week in the Southeastern Region of the United States.

Oklahoma State had muscled its way to a 17-3 lead with 11:43 remaining in the third quarter. First Wally Woodham scored on a two-yard run. When the kick failed, the Seminoles were trailing, 17-9.

Early in the fourth stanza, Mark Lyles plunged to a score from two yards away, but the run failed and it was 17-15, Oklahoma State. With 6:46 left in the game Dave Cappelen booted a 30-yard field goal that gave the Seminoles the lead for the first time.

After the kickoff, the Cowboys fumbled on their first scrimmage play and the ball was covered by free safety Nat Terry. Three plays later Key sprinted to the end zone with a 19-yard pass from Woodham for the final TD. Cappelen's PAT gave FSU an eight point cushion with 5:10 still showing on the clock.

FLORIDA STATE 14, CINCINNATI 0

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., (Oct. 8)—Cincinnati's defense came to Doak Campbell Stadium with the national reputation—ranked in five different categories—but it was the Florida State defense that took the spotlight in the Seminoles' 14-0 victory over the previously unbeaten Bearcats.

FSU got a touchdown with 1:04 remaining in the first half when quarterback Wally Woodham hurled a 15-yard scoring strike to Mike Shumann. Those were the only points the Seminoles needed although they picked up seven more early in the second half when Roger Overby caught a 36-yard Woodham aerial and Dave Cappelen booted his second conversion.

Otherwise this was a night that belonged to the defense and receiver Roger Overby.

Cincinnati often penetrated the Seminole side of the 50 but was never able to cross the goal line. The Bearcats picked up 198 yards rushing and another 112 along the ground. Five times during the contest the 'Cats penetrated inside the Seminole 30. Three times they were inside the 24 and once they made it to the 10, but somehow FSU always managed to get the ball back before a score.

Overby, who had thought about giving up football in the spring, had the finest night of his career, catching nine of Woodham's 16 completions for 136 yards. Woodham passed the Garnet and Gold to 265 yards.

FLORIDA STATE 24, AUBURN 3

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (Oct. 22)—With the sixth largest crowd in Florida State football history as witnesses, senior runningback Larry Key established a new single game rushing record with 170 yards and paced the Seminoles to their first victory ever over Auburn, 24-3.

Key was sensational on this balmy fall evening. He carried 25 times for those 170 yards, but also scored two touchdowns, caught one pass and returned a kickoff 39 yards.

"There is no doubt about it," Florida State head coach Bobby Bowden was to say later, "Larry Key is one of the toughest little men I've ever seen. He is really hard to bring down once he gets going. It was great for Larry to get that record."

This victory, like so many others during the year, was a concentrated team effort although Key stole the spotlight. On offense for instance, Wally Woodham had a sparkling night completing 12 of 20 aerials for 149 yards. Tight end Grady King grabbed five of those passes while Roger Overby, Mike Shumann and Greg Lazzaro each caught two.

Defensively the Seminoles received superb performances from noseguard Ron Simmons, 10 solos and nine assists, and linebackers Aaron Carter and Jimmy Heggins (five and four, each). Among the Simmons statistics were three tackles for loss netting 16 yards and a fumble recovery.

In previous efforts against the Tigers, FSU showed an 0-9-1 report card. The win was the first for the Seminoles against an opponent from the Southeastern Conference since 1972.

FLORIDA STATE 35, NORTH TEXAS 14

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (Oct. 29)—Two North Texas State miscues forced by the Florida State defense within 44 seconds late in the second quarter resulted in Seminole touchdowns and ignited a 35-14 victory at Doak Campbell Stadium before a Homecoming crowd of 40,597.

Locked in a 7-7 deadlock Florida State received its first break when freshman Bobby Butler blocked a punt and Ivory Joe Hunter returned it 15 yards for a TD with 3:08 remaining in the half.

Then 44 seconds later North Texas quarterback Mike Smith and runningback Mike Jones muffed a handoff in the Mean Green end zone. They let the ball drop to the ground and it was recovered by defensive end Willie Jones for six more Seminole points. Dave Cappelen then booted his third of five PATs and it sent FSU to the locker room with a 21-7 halftime lead.

In the second half, the Seminoles got TDs on one yard plunges by quarterback Wally Woodham and runningback Larry Key.

The game produced one of the most brilliant efforts ever by a Florida State defensive player. Noseguard Ron Simmons was credited with 10 solo tackles and nine more assists. Included in those 10 solos were five quarterback sacks for minus 52 yards. That performance earned Simmons honors as the Associated Press Lineman of the Week for the nation and southeast, Sports Illustrated's Defensive Player of the Week and United Press International Defensive Player of the Week for the south.

Later in the next week, Seminole head coach Bobby Bowden was to say: "I was at West Virginia and watched what Tony Dorsett did for the Pittsburgh program. Ron Simmons is doing the same for Florida State only he is a defensive instead of offensive player."

FLORIDA STATE 23, VIRGINIA TECH 21

BLACKSBURG, Va., (Nov. 5)—Battling from behind for most of the rainy afternoon, Florida State finally got a go-ahead 29-yard field goal from Dave Cappelen with 4:57 remaining in the game to spoil Virginia Tech's Homecoming, 23-21.

From the statistics one would believe Florida State completely dominated the contest. Not true, however, even though the Seminoles out first downed the Gobblers, 21-16, and out offensed the Gobblers, 442-270, which included a 258-14 advantage in the air.

Florida State brought the reverse out of its closet for this contest. Seminole wide receiver Mike Shumann ran the reverse three times for 99 yards. But, he also ran it a fourth time, only on this occasion Shumann, who caught five passes for 80 yards, threw to Roger Overby for 39 yards. That aerial set up Cappelen's winning field goal.

Despite a pounding rain that lasted throughout the contest, FSU relied on its passing game. Woodham completed 17 of 27 for 219 yards and one TD—a 10 yarder to Shumann. In addition to Shumann, Woodham's other favorite target was Larry Key, who caught four for 40 yards.

Besides the Shumann TD, the only other Seminole six pointer belonged to Woodham, who plunged to paydirt from one yard away. Cappelen had three field goals and two PATs.

With the victory, Florida State gained an 11-10-1 series advantage. It was the second consecutive year the Seminoles managed a come-from-behind fourth quarter win over the Gobblers.

SAN DIEGO STATE 41, FLORIDA STATE 16

SAN DIEGO, Cal., (Nov. 19)—Early turnovers—a fumble, blocked punt and fumbled punt—put Florida State in trouble during the first quarter and the Seminoles, who entered the game ranked No. 13 in both wire service polls, bowed 41-16 to sky high San Diego State.

The Seminoles were never in this contest. It was 14-0 before 10 minutes elapsed. FSU moved as close as 21-10, but San Diego State ran off 20 consecutive points before the Seminoles were to score again.

The second quarter was the big one for the Aztecs, who were playing before 50,453 fans, their second largest crowd in history.

"We were beaten every way possible," said FSU head coach Bobby Bowden. "You couldn't point to any particular area and say that is where the breakdown came. Everything broke down."

San Diego State quarterback Joe Davis was especially damaging to the Seminoles. He completed 21 of 30 passes for 228 yards and three touchdowns. Also a problem for the FSU defense was runningback David Turner, who gained 189 yards in 25 carries.

The loss concluded several Seminole streaks: (1) a six-game win streak; (2) a five-game win streak on the road.

FLORIDA STATE 30, MEMPHIS STATE 9

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., (Nov. 18)—Victory number six in a row and eight of the season came before 40,127 Doak Campbell Stadium faithful. The victim: Memphis State. The score: 30-9.

Florida State experienced a tough time with the Tigers, whom they had not beaten since 1968. It was 10-0 at halftime after Dave Cappelen had booted a 30-yard field goal with 4:27 remaining in the half and quarterback Wally Woodham and wide receiver Mike Shumann hooked up on a 27-yard TD pass play with 1:06 left. The TD was set up following a Memphis State fumble that was recovered by Seminole linebacker Jimmy Heggins.

After Memphis State earned a field goal in the third quarter, Florida State reeled off 20 consecutive points. Eight of those markers were produced by tiny placekicker Dave Cappelen, who booted field goals of 37 and 21 yards plus a pair of PATs. Mark Lyles rumbled four yards for a TD and Greg Lazzaro caught a 13-yard pass from Jimmy Jordan for the other score.

Larry Key, playing his last home game of a brilliant career, bowed out with a 110-yard rushing effort on 24 attempts. His efforts were backed up by fullback Mark Lyles, who added 80 in 10 stabs through the Tiger line.

Quarterbacks Woodham and Jordan combined to complete 13 of 23 passes for 168 yards and two scores. Their favorite receiver was Roger Overby, who caught five for 66 yards.

Seminole defenders completely shackled what was supposed to be a strong Memphis State ground game. The Tigers netted just 60 yards in 53 attempts while picking up another 188 yards through the air.

FLORIDA STATE 37, FLORIDA 9

GAINESVILLE, Fla., (Dec. 3)—Florida State ended a nine-year drought in convincing style when it dumped arch-rival Florida, 37-9, before 63,563, the largest crowd to watch the Seminoles during the '77 season.

The victory capped a brilliant regular season for the Garnet and Gold. It was the ninth victory in 11 starts, the first time in Seminole history the school had recorded nine wins during a regular season. And, the win also returned FSU football to respectability throughout the south since head coach Bobby Bowden had said more than once that the program "would not be turned around until we beat Florida."

Thus the victory—only the third in the 20-year series for the Seminoles—was more important than any other win in recent memory for Seminole coaches and boosters.

The Seminoles led from the start in this one. After Florida failed to move the sticks following the opening kickoff, the Seminoles went 72 yards in six plays for their first TD. The six points belonged to sophomore Kurt Unglaub, who caught a 35-yard Wally Woodham pass. Dave Cappelen booted the PAT.

And, that opening Seminole drive demonstrated what the Seminoles were going to do the entire afternoon—PASS. First, it was Woodham, who quarterbacked during the first quarter and the opening series of the second. He completed six of 10 passes for 86 yards and the TD.

Then came Jimmy Jordan, who head coach Bobby Bowden later described as "my fast ball pitcher." Pitch is exactly what Jordan did with the pigskin. Guiding the Seminoles for all but two series during the rest of the game, Jordan completed 13 of 19 for 240 yards and three touchdowns. That effort earned him "Offensive Player of the Game" honors from the ABC-TV broadcasting team sending the game throughout the south on a regional basis.

Jordan wasn't the only star, however. Also drawing his share of recognition was Roger Overby, who caught three TD passes during the afternoon. Overall, he had six grabs for 124 yards. Senior Mike Shumann was on the receiving end of five passes for 111 yards while Unglaub grabbed four for 78. The Unglaub total was just one short of his season total entering the game.

Also in the spotlight was runningback Larry Key, who rushed for 143 yards to become the first player in Seminole history to ever gain 1,000 yards rushing in a season.

Nobody could forget the defense either. Florida State limited the Gators to a mere 200 yards total offense and the hosts didn't score a touchdown for the first time in a regular season game since 1973. That defense was spearheaded by Willie Jones, a junior defensive end, who earned "Defensive Player of the Game" honors.

TANGERINE BOWL FLORIDA STATE 40, TEXAS TECH 17

ORLANDO, Fla. (Dec. 23)—Florida State, making its first bowl appearance in seven years, demolished Texas Tech, 40-17, in the 32nd Tangerine Bowl.

A record-breaking crowd of 44,502 witnessed almost total domination by the Seminoles, who became the only Division I school currently playing major college football in Florida to achieve 10 victories in a single season.

FSU jumped ahead with 5:50 remaining the opening quarter on a 23-yard Dave Cappelen field goal. It stayed that way until Mike Mock of Texas Tech evened the count with a 24-yarder early in the second quarter. At that point, however, the Seminoles took over. It was a 93-yard kickoff return by Larry Key following the Tech field goal that gave the Seminoles the lead for good.

Later in the same quarter, quarterback Jimmy Jordan found tight end Grady King on a 37-yard scoring pass that boosted the Seminoles lead to 16-3 at intermission.

The Seminoles continued to add to their cushion in the third quarter. First Jordan found Mike Shumann with a 40-yard scoring toss. Next Cappelen booted a 22-yard field goal. That made it 27-3.

Tech returned to the board with 7:46 remaining in the quarter on a 44-yard scoring pass to make it 27-9. The count remained that way until Wally Woodham found Roger Overby on a 15-yard scoring toss to increase the Seminole lead with just 3:34 left.

Neither team was through yet, however. Tech came back to score on a 21-yard run by Billy Taylor and with just :48 seconds remaining, FSU completed the scoring on a 44-yard pass involving Woodham and Chip Sanders.

The defenders were so impressive that it was hard for observers to decide who should win the Most Valuable Player Defensive trophy. The sportswriters covering the contest picked end Willie Jones while the Mizlou TV network, which telecast the game across the nation, tagged the other end Scott Warren.

Jordan, however, took MVP honors for the game and offense. The rifle-armed sophomore had his best game as a Seminole, completing 18 of 25 passes for 311 yards and two touchdowns.

Many thought the offensive and game award should have gone to Key, playing his final game for the Garnet and Gold. He rushed for 83 yards in 21 attempts, caught six passes for another 100 yards and returned an additional three kickoffs for 131 more yards.

SEMINOLE FOOTBALL: A POINT OF PRIDE

By BILL McGROTHA
Tallahassee Democrat Sports Editor

It was a season for the hungry, a record-breaking one rivaled by only two others in Florida State football history. But the final '77 record of 10-2 topped, in many ways, the 9-1-1 of '64 and the 7-2-2 of '67.

For one thing, it was the Seminoles' first winning campaign since '72. For another, it was the first time they had beaten Florida since '67. Moreover, the Seminoles earned their first bowl bid since '71, and throttled Texas Tech 40-17 in the Tangerine.

The season of '77 was dominated, individually, by the extraordinary Larry Key, who became the first Seminole ever to run for more than 1,000 yards in one year.

Darling of the fans, who came to jangle their pocket keys in tribute to him and chant "Key, Key, Key—," he also blocked, caught passes, ran back kickoffs and evolved into an inspirational leader by example. Key finished Florida State with 2,953 regular-season rushing yards behind him, and annexed every possible Florida State running record.

It was also a season that saw perhaps the finest all-round corps of receivers in Florida State history terrorizing enemy secondaries, and one of splendid defense, with end Willie Jones and freshman nose guard Ron Simmons notable ones.

But it may be remembered primarily as the season when the Seminoles demolished rival Florida 37-9 on the Gator's own home field, ending 10 years of frustration against this opponent.

A second season under Coach Bobby Bowden was again characterized by the comeback. In Bowden's first season the Seminoles had come from behind, dramatically, to win their last five games and finish 5-6.

Florida State also came from behind in its first four games of '77—though the Seminoles finally fell in one of those, to Miami 23-17—and that made it seven consecutive games in which a Bowden team had rallied to go ahead, winning six of the seven.

The Seminoles came from behind to win in one other '77 game, Virginia Tech 23-21.

Considering the fact that in four previous seasons the Seminoles had won only nine games, that Florida had not fallen since '67, that the team was ranked a final 11th (UPI) and 14th (AP) nationally, it might have been Florida State's most pridelful season.

Football got started at Florida State on a point of pride.

It was just after World War II. Many would-have-been students had gone to war as 18-year-olds.

Colleges were swamped by returning veterans. There was no room for them all.

One of the multiple developments that came about was the evolution of Florida State into a co-educational institution—and the quick birth of modern football at the school.

In one form or another, however, Florida State had been around for a long time, since 1857 when it was first the Seminary West of the Suwannee. By 1861 it was Florida State College. In the year 1901 Florida State played its first football, and the schedule included winning games against a school that would become the University of Florida.

The scores and records of those early days are clouded, but Florida State continued with football through 1905. The passage of something called the Buckman Bill in 1905 meant wholesale change in Florida higher education. Florida State College became Florida Female College, and retained that name until 1909 when it was rechristened Florida State College for Women.

After World War II the school became part of the answer for those returning veterans. Briefly, there was the Tallahassee Branch of the University of Florida, set up on what was called West Campus — previously the site of Dale Marby Field, where Air Force pilots were trained during the war. FSCW remained intact a couple of miles away, but the TBRUF boys attended classes on that campus.

Florida State University was born, by act of the state legislature, in the spring of 1947. And by September of that year Florida State had its first football team of modern time.

In a nutshell, football came to Florida State because those returning veterans demanded that it come — and as a point of pride. The student body, the townspeople promptly rallied around the cause. That rallying hasn't stopped yet.

Reflecting that early pride was a famed cheer. One story has it that the origin was an impromptu one, with an exuberant veteran rising to his feet in the stands during one of the first games and yelling: "FSU one time! FSU T-W-O times! FSU T-H-R-E-E times! FSU A-L-L the damned time!" The stirring yell continues unchanged, and has been copied by other schools.

Florida State's first coach was Ed Williamson, a Tallahassee native who played football at University of Florida. He agreed to take the job for one year only. A five game schedule was hastily drawn up. The Seminoles started proudly, losing an opening game 14-6 to Stetson in downtown Tallahassee, at old Centennial Field (a block from the State Capitol). Stetson was pretty good in those days, and fans quickly came to expect too much too soon. FSU scored only two touchdowns the rest of the way, and lost the remaining four games. Williamson resigned, as he had said he would, at season's end.

Florida State hired as his successor Don Veller, a soft-spoken gentleman and scholar who had a doctorate and a distinguished football background. He had been a whiz running back for the University of Indiana under the great coach, Bo McMillan.

Operating with a formation called the Cockeyed-T, Veller quickly got Florida State football on the road. His first season was 7-1, his second 9-1, his third 8-0 and his fourth 6-2. Hard-nosed combat veterans contributed significantly to those proud showings.

Moving toward the bigtime, Florida State started playing tougher opposition. In 1952 the Seminoles really moved into high cotton, and the result was a disappointing 1-8-1 record. Veller resigned, but remained at FSU in a prominent physical education role. He's still there. His overall FSU coaching record was 31-12-1, and it remains unmatched.

Along came Tom Nugent as the next coach. An imaginative man, a showman, Nugent brought with him a capacity for creating excitement. He also brought with him the "I" formation that many years later was to become so popular all over the country.

Nugent's 6-year record was 34-28-1 at Florida State. In his second year the Seminoles went 8-3 and earned an invitation to play in the Sun Bowl.

Among those who went to the Sun Bowl, after that '54 season, was a freshman running back name of Buddy Reynolds. A better than average runner, Reynolds got hurt in an auto accident soon after. Later, after starting his acting career, Buddy (Burt) Reynolds was ready to give it all up for another fling at Florida State football. But after a brief period — he had a little problem playing defense in a day you had to go both ways — Reynolds returned to Hollywood and moved on the box-office fame.

Stars of the Nugent years were many, among them quarterback-halfback Lee Corso (now head coach at Indiana), and the notable triple-threat Bobby Renn, still generally regarded as the best all-round back in Florida State history.

Nugent's last year, 1958, was a memorable one. The record was 7-4, but it included a thundering 10-0 upset of Tennessee in Knoxville — one of the two or three biggest victories in Florida State history. It also was the first year that Florida State played Florida.

Maryland lured Nugent away, and the Seminoles hired Perry Moss, a Tulsa-reared former quarterback who had served as an assistant at several schools.

The 4-6 season of 1959 was a depressing one. The word leaked prior to the Homecoming game against William & Mary that Moss would leave to accept a lucrative offer in Canadian pro football, at Montreal — and the Seminoles were victims of a 9-0 upset that day. Still, with many players hurt, with morale supposedly shot, the Seminoles closed with a gutty 18-8 loss to a vastly superior Florida team.

Then came Bill Peterson as coach, and Florida State's most interesting decade of football. An Ohio native, Peterson had served under Paul Dietzel at Louisiana State in years that included a national-championship one in '58.

Peterson set out to "establish a defense" at Florida State, and did. Playing Florida the first six years of the series in Gainesville, Peterson's first two teams lost down there 3-0 and tied 3-3.

Those games rather typified an all-out defensive style. In '62 the Seminoles tied Kentucky, Georgia Tech and Auburn, beat Georgia 18-0 and finished 4-3-3, with defense much the name of their game. That battling team of '62 remains one of Peterson's favorites.

By '64 the Seminoles were rolling on offense — and now Peterson had made a vow to "throw the football — even if I have to fire every coach on my staff." And no team in college football over the next seven years threw the football as effectively as those Seminoles.

In spring practice of '64 a lanky quarterback named Steve Tensi threw to a quick and graceful Fred Biletnikoff . . . so often it became monotonous.

That fall, prior to the first kickoff, defensive players — the seven closest to the line of scrimmage — decided to shave their heads and proclaim themselves "The Seven Magnificents." Avery Summer, a tackle, instigated the move. (During the season that followed, the seven got so much attention players in the secondary came to dub themselves "The Forgotten Four.")

With high dedication, Florida State shut out its first three foes of '64. In the fourth game, Kentucky — unbeaten, untied, ranked No. 4 in the nation — came to town. Florida State startled the football world by cloistering the Wildcats 48-6.

That game is rated by many as Florida State's greatest victory.

But "The Seven Magnificents" cried after the game — because Kentucky had managed to score on them after recovering a fumbled punt down deep near game's end.

The Seminoles' passing game that day was peerless. For the remainder of the season it was much — in Peterson's words — "like stealing." The regular season ended 8-1-1, the lone loss to Virginia Tech, the tie with Houston on a day when Biletnikoff was hurt. The Seminoles took their first-ever victory over Florida 16-7, with Biletnikoff scoring on a Tensi bomb and Les Murdock kicking three field goals.

Florida State cupped that big year by taking Oklahoma apart in the Gator Bowl 30-17 as Biletnikoff caught four touchdown passes. (Still catching 'em with the pro Oakland Raiders, Biletnikoff was acclaimed the game's most valuable player after the 1977 Super Bowl.)

Another rather unbelievable season came in '67. Following a crushing 33-13 opening loss at Houston, the Seminoles tied Alabama 37-37 in Birmingham — surely one of the great football games of all time.

It was another sensational passing combination — Kim Hammond to Ron Sellers — that got the job done. ABC-TV was doing a documentary on Alabama Coach Bear Bryant at the time. The shocking tie at FSU hands took up much of the film that was later shown on national television. There was a memorable moment when a stunned Bryant, his team down 14-0, was hollering to his players: "What's going on out there — what the HELL is going on out there!”

With Sellers and Hammond going their big thing, Florida State won the last seven games of '67, then tied Penn State 17-17 in the Gator Bowl.

Going 8-2 in '68, the Seminoles again got a bowl bid, playing LSU in the Peach. That was the fourth bowl for Peterson in a 5-year span.

In 1969 the record was 6-3-1 and in '70 it was 7-4. Peterson resigned after the year to become head coach and athletic director at Rice.

The Seminoles hired Larry Jones, another former Paul Dietzel aide, as the new coach. In 1971, with Gary Huff throwing to Barry Smith, Florida State finished a strong 8-3 and played Arizona State in the first Fiesta Bowl, falling 45-38 in an extraordinary offensive battle.

In '72, with high expectations, the Seminoles won their first four. Then injuries took a heavy toll. The final record was 7-4, with South Carolina springing a 24-21 upset at the end and knocking the Seminoles out of a Peach Bowl bid.

Disaster came in '73. The Seminoles won none. It was a combination of many things that wrought an all-losing season, including the graduation of several pro-type players. But it stemmed notably, many feel, from an unsettling aura of ill publicity prior to the season's start.

Jones left after that season. Darrell Mudra, with a successful background at smaller schools, was hired. Mudra teams went 1-10 and 3-8. A highlight, reflecting familiar Seminole pride, was a first-year loss at Alabama 8-7. It was a stunner that Florida State not only could have won but, in the view of most, should have won.

When Mudra departed after the '75 season, Bowden was hired. Notably successful as head coach of West Virginia, Bowden had strongly wanted to return to Florida State where he had served as an assistant under Peterson for three years.

Bowden's dramatic first-year showing included a 28-9 upset of then-unbeaten Boston College up there, and an "almost" victory over Florida — the Seminoles lost 33-26. Larry Key put himself in the Florida State's record book as the leading Seminole ground-gainer of all time as he racked up more than 700 yards in his junior season.

It says something favorable about Florida State that Bowden would leave West Virginia to come here. Something favorable is also said in the fact that three former coaches — Williamson, Veller and Peterson — live in Tallahassee.

Nugent returned here to live after his coaching time at Maryland, but now is associated with Florida Tech in a public relations role. Moss is now on the staff of the University of Kentucky, and Jones on that of the University of Kansas. Mudra is now head coach at Eastern Illinois.

One of Bowden's top aides is Bob Harbison, a fixture at Florida State. He's served with every head coach except Williamson, the first one. Harbison has been associated with 29 of the Seminoles' 31 seasons.

Florida State's 32nd year of football will be a continuing point of pride with those World War II veterans who started it all. Most of them are still around, too.

Game Notes: FSU has played Virginia Tech more times (22) than any other team on its schedule . . . Bill Dooley takes over Virginia Tech program after guiding North Carolina for 11 seasons . . . his Carolina teams went to bowl games in six of his final eight years there . . . Dooley also has role of athletic director for Gobblers . . . In ruin last season at Blacksburg, FSU came from behind to record victory with 29-yard Dave Cappelen field goal . . . the three-pointer came with 4:57 showing on the clock . . . Seminole mentor Bobby Bowden has never lost to Gobblers in five meetings . . . State owns an 11-10-1 series edge.

BOWL GAMES IN REVIEW

1950 CIGAR BOWL

FLORIDA STATE 19, WOFFORD 6

TAMPA, Fla. (Jan. 2, 1950)—Red Parrish scored twice and Buddy Strauss rushed for 132 yards to give underdog Florida State a 19-6 win over Wofford in the Cigar Bowl football game.

The victory was a come-from-behind effort by the Seminoles as the Terriers scored only moments into the contest to make the score 6-0. That touchdown came when Wofford defenders blocked a Bo Manuel punt and recovered it in the end zone. The extra point attempt was no good.

For the balance of the first quarter, Florida State mounted several drives that stalled around midfield while Wofford netted virtually nothing offensively. Early in the second period, however, Wofford had its first real threat. It died on the Seminoles' 16-yard-line when Bill Dawkins intercepted a pass and returned it to the Terrier 20. Shortly after, Parrish bolted to the tribe's initial touchdown that tied the score at 6-6.

Late in the half the Seminoles got cranked up again. Strauss hustled up the middle for a 15-yard gain and an interference penalty pushed Florida State into Wofford territory. On the next play Parrish lofted a lefthanded halfback pass to Norman Eubanks who made a spectacular catch between two defenders at the Terrier two-yard line. On the last play of the half Strauss busted into the end zone and Jerry Morneal's extra point sent the Seminoles to the locker room with a 13-6 lead.

The third period was a dogged defensive battle with no serious scoring threats. But in the final period FSU pined Wofford deep in its own territory with a 63-yard Manuel punt. After the Terriers fumbled on their own eight, the Seminoles were unable to cash in as Parrish came up a foot short on fourth down.

Unable to move the ball out of the deep hole, Wofford was forced to punt giving the Seminoles excellent field position with only minutes remaining. This time Don Veller's team wasted no time cashing in. With only seconds showing on the clock, Parrish sliced in from the five and Florida State had a 19-6 upset victory.

1955 SUN BOWL

TEXAS WESTERN 47, FLORIDA STATE 20

EL PASO, Tex. (Jan. 1, 1955)—Florida State's defense collapsed in the second quarter allowing Texas Western to move well ahead and capture a 47-20 Sun Bowl victory.

With the score tied 7-7 at the end of the first period, the underdog Miners put together a magnificent 28-point quarter that buried the Seminoles on this steamy January afternoon. Texas Western quarterback John Griner ran the option to perfection in that second quarter, and the Seminoles, fighting a blinding sun and the high altitude, just couldn't keep pace.

After leading 7-0 in the first four minutes of this 20th renewal of the Sun Bowl, the Seminoles allowed the aroused Miners to tie the score late in the period. On their first play of the second quarter, Florida State fumbled on its own 24 and Texas Western needed only two plays to grab its first lead of the day. That touchdown came on a nifty run by Miner ace Jesse Whittenon.

At that point the flood gates opened. Tom Nugent's Seminoles made three more costly mistakes in the quarter that led directly to Texas Western touchdowns and the home-standing Miners eased into the locker room with an unbelievable 34-7 advantage.

In the final half, the Miners ran the count to 41-7 before the Tribe managed to get on the board for the second time in the afternoon. Quarterback Len Swantic led a third quarter drive that was sparked by a 43-yard touchdown pass to Tom Feamster. But Western wasted no time in countering that Seminole score. On the next kickoff, Bob Forrest raced 95 yards for the final Miner touchdown of the day.

The Seminoles were able to tack on a final tally in the fourth period. Harry Massey hit Billy Odom on a 16-yard pass play for the score.

1958 BLUEGRASS BOWL OKLAHOMA STATE 15, FLORIDA STATE 6

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (Dec. 13, 1958)—A frantic fourth-quarter comeback was not to be as Florida State couldn't fight off the bitter cold and Oklahoma State went home with a 15-6 victory in the only Bluegrass Bowl ever played.

A crowd of just over 7,000 was able to brave the 10-degree weather for the first-ever meeting between the two schools. Players on both teams wore tennis shoes in an effort to combat the frozen turf. It was the Seminoles' first nationally televised game and a relatively obscure Howard Cosell handled the color that day.

Florida State got off to a good start in this one, mounting two drives deep into OSU territory. Both times they came up empty-handed though as field goal attempts from the 16 and 23 fell short.

Oklahoma State managed to dent the scoreboard early in the second quarter as swift halfback Duane Wood sprinted in from the Florida State 17.

Unable to get anything going in that second period, the Seminoles were forced to rely on their defense. Repeatedly, it came through to stop Oklahoma State drives. The last assault came in the final two minutes of the half. The Aggies drove inside the Florida State five and on fourth down with 1:15 left FSU's Ron Hinson stopped Forrest Campbell one foot from paydirt. That sent the clubs to the locker room with the score still at 7-0.

Early in the third period the Seminoles did themselves in, with a pair of fumbles. The second miscue set up the Aggies at the Florida State 39. It took 10 plays but Wood finally scored his second touchdown and then caught a two-point conversion to make it 15-0.

Switching to a double wing spread, the Seminoles came very close to getting back in the game. A 38-yard touchdown pass from Joe Majors to Carl Meyer made it 15-6. The two-point try was no good. Later in the quarter Majors hit Bobby Renn on a 40-yard toss that carried to the Aggie six. After three plays netted nothing, a fourth-down pass was intercepted in the end zone and the game was history.

1965 GATOR BOWL FLORIDA STATE 36, OKLAHOMA 19

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Jan. 2, 1965)—A brilliant passing combination of Steve Tensi and Fred Biletnikoff rewrote the Gator Bowl record book and gave the upstart Seminoles an impressive 36-19 victory over Oklahoma in this post season event.

The Florida State victory will long be remembered as one of the greatest passing shows in the history of college football. Tensi completed 23 of 36 passes for 303 yards and five touchdowns while Biletnikoff hauled in 13 for 192 yards and four TDs. Both players signed professional contracts on the field at the completion of the game.

Oklahoma claimed the first break of the day as Tensi was intercepted. The Sooners marched to the Seminole 34 but on third down FSU defensive back Howard Ehler picked off an OU pass and sailed 63 yards for the initial touchdown. Later in the quarter the Sooners came back to claim the lead 7-6 but that lead lasted only as long as it took the Tribe to move 90 yards.

Phil Spooner was instrumental in the drive and Tensi continued to pick the OU defense apart. From the 15, Tensi hit Biletnikoff for a 12-7 lead. Twice more before the intermission, Tensi found Biletnikoff for touchdowns. The first score followed a George D'Allesandro fumble recovery and the second came on a long drive against the clock. The halftime score was 24-7.

Early in the second half Oklahoma recovered a Seminole fumble and cut the lead to 24-13, but as the third period drew to a close the Seminoles executed an 82-yard drive. On the last play of the quarter Tensi hit Don Floyd in the Oklahoma end zone for the touchdown.

Just to prove they could go to the air as well, Oklahoma put on some heroics of its own early in the final stanza when Sooner quarterback Ron Fletcher found speedy Ben Hart behind the FSU defenders for a 95-yard scoring play.

With 10 minutes left and the score at 30-19 it was time for the Seminole defense to take over. Two drives late in the game came up short for the Sooners and finally FSU tacked on its final TD—a 14-yard Tensi-to-Biletnikoff toss that made it 36-19.

1966 SUN BOWL WYOMING 28, FLORIDA STATE 20

EL PASO, Tex. (Dec. 24, 1966)—Florida State's vaunted passing attack was not enough to overcome a stingy Wyoming defense and the Seminoles fell 28-20 in their second try for a Sun Bowl title.

Though the Seminoles got a couple of early breaks it was the Cowboys who first drew blood. The initial score came on a Jim Kiick plunge and the score stood 7-0 at the end of the first period. Florida State bounced back, however, as Bud Moreman fell on a Vic Washington fumble and FSU had the ball at the Wyoming 49. From there Kim Hammond found Ron Sellers for the tying touchdown.

The Seminoles managed to grab the lead in the game shortly before the intermission. This time Hammond hit T. K. Weatherall behind the Cowboy secondary for a 51 yard scoring strike. At the half it was 14-7.

It didn't take long for the Cowboys to tie the score. Early in the second half Wyoming quarterback Rick Egloff found Jerry Marion for a 39-yard touchdown. Late in the third quarter the Cowboys went ahead to stay. Kiick, who gained 135 yards on 23 carries, picked up 43 of them on a touchdown run that gave the Cowboys a 21-14 lead.

Florida State made a last-ditch attempt to regain a part of the lead as time ticked away in the final quarter. Hammond hit Ron Sellers in Wyoming territory. As the lanky receiver was hit, he fumbled the ball and it was recovered by teammate Chip Glass at the Cowboy five. But the tenacious Wyoming defense held in the final three minutes. From there Wyoming used a pair of 15-yard penalties and the running of Kiick to drive to the FSU 14 in the waning minutes. Egloff scampered into the end zone for the final Cowboy touchdown.

The Seminoles were not quite finished. Hammond led the Tribe down the field as the clock ran down. He hit Sellers for a 23-yard touchdown pass and the final score reached 28-20.

1967 GATOR BOWL

FLORIDA STATE 17, PENN STATE 17

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Dec. 30, 1967)—Penn State jumped to a commanding 7-point lead at intermission but Florida State battled back in the second half to gain an exciting 17-17 tie.

The Seminoles received the kickoff but were stalled at the Penn State 25. The Lions fumbled after one play but an intercepted pass gave them the ball back and they got the first score on a 27-yard field goal by Tom Sherman in the closing minutes of the first quarter.

Late in the second period Sherman passed to Jack Curry on a 40-yard touchdown play and then came back to hit All-America tight end Ted Kwaliek on a 12-yard scoring aerial with 50 seconds remaining in the half. The Seminoles were completely stopped before intermission as Penn State threw up a stingy defense that kept Kim Hammond and his mates at bay.

The momentum changed in the second half, however. Penn State received the kick but was forced to punt. The Tribe drove quickly to the Lion one but couldn't punch the ball in. However, on the next series, the Lions gambled on fourth down at their own 15 and the Seminole defense held. Three plays later Hammond passed to Ron Sellers for the initial Florida State score.

When Lion halfback Charhe Pittman fumbled the ball on the kickoff the Seminoles were back in business at the Penn State 22. Passes to Sellers and Bill Moreman moved the ball to the one and from there Hammond took it on himself to cut the lead to 17-14.

With just over a minute to play in the game, Hammond directed a picture-perfect drive from the Seminole 31 to the Penn State 15. There Florida State was faced with a fourth-and-five situation with 17 seconds remaining. Coach Bill Peters Jr. decided to go for the sure three points and a tie rather than to risk a 17-14 loss. Grant Guthrie booted the field goal and the 1967 Gator Bowl had co-champions.

1968 PEACH BOWL LOUISIANA STATE 31, FLORIDA STATE 27

ATLANTA, Ga. (Dec. 30, 1968)—Competing in its fourth consecutive bowl game Florida State couldn't outscore Louisiana State and the Seminoles fell 31-27 in a soggy game that interrupted Atlanta's Peach Bowl.

The Seminoles had been considered a slight favorite in the game until the teams took the field for the pre-game warmups. It was at that point the rain began to fall and it didn't let up until the final minutes of the contest played at Georgia Tech's Grant Field.

Despite the rain, the Seminoles wasted little time getting on the scoreboard. LSU won the toss but the Tigers bobbled the ball and FSU's John Crowe pounced on the loose ball at the Tiger 36. Tom Bailey swept around right end on the game's first play from scrimmage and went all the way for the touchdown.

That was the only score of the first period, however, as the heavy rain hampered both teams. In that first period, the Seminoles recovered two more LSU fumbles and intercepted a Tiger pass.

Early in the second period Bill Cappleman capped a 75-yard drive with a 21-yard touchdown pass to Bill Ginter that gave the Tribe a 13-0 lead. LSU's first score came midway through the second period on a 39-yard punt return of a stray Bill Cheslure kick. A 32-yard field goal in the waning minutes of the half cut the Seminole lead to 13-10 at intermission.

The Tigers came roaring back in the third period and a pair of touchdowns staked them to a 24-13 lead. But the Seminoles were not finished. A fourth-quarter Cappleman to Sellers pass brought Florida State within five and with 6:15 left in the game they went on top 27-24 with a Cappleman-Sellers aerial and a two-point conversion pass to Chip Glass.

LSU's winning touchdown capped a long drive that culminated with 2:39 left. The last-ditch Seminole effort was thwarted when a fourth-down pass to Sellers was tipped away.

1971 FIESTA BOWL ARIZONA STATE 45, FLORIDA STATE 38

TEMPE, Ariz. (Dec. 27, 1971)—In one of the most dazzling offensive shows in bowl history Arizona State managed to score with 34 seconds remaining in the game and capture the first-ever Fiesta Bowl 45-38.

Over 51,000 partisan Arizona State fans crowded into Sun Devil Stadium and Ray Scott was on hand to call the shots over a 140-station TV network. Florida State's initial drive stalled and Arizona State wasted no time in grabbing a 7-0 lead. FSU's Barry Smith brought the kickoff back 49 yards and like lightning Gary Huff and his mates tied the score. Huff's passes put the Tribe at the one and from there Paul Magalski slammed home.

Thirty-two points went on the board in the second quarter. The locals drew first blood but soon a field goal by Frank Pontes moved the Seminoles to within one at 14-13. The momentum seemed to swing to Florida State as it raced 63 yards on a later drive and added a two-point conversion to lead 21-14. With just over two minutes left in the half ASU's Danny White hit Steve Holden for a 55-yard scoring pass that tied it at 21-21.

But, at that point the Seminoles proved they had come to play. Huff put on a brilliant passing display, hitting Gaydos for 46 yards to the Sun Devil 10. With time running out, Rhett Dawson snared his second touchdown pass of the day to give the Tribe a 28-21 lead at halftime.

The third quarter was all Arizona State. Holding the ball almost the entire quarter, the Sun Devils put 10 points on the board and led 31-18 heading into the final stanza. Early in that last quarter Florida State culminated a 75-yard drive with a Florida field goal to tie the game 31-31. On an exchange of punts, Holden hurt the Seminoles again. This time he returned a Dwane Carroll punt 63 yards for a touchdown. Florida State came back to tie the game again as Dawson made a sensational touchdown grab between two defenders with 4:44 left in the contest.

A final ASU drive resulted in a Woody Green score with 34 seconds left to provide the final margin.

THE UNIVERSITY

THIS IS FLORIDA STATE

Florida State University—the home of more than 20,000 Seminoles—has a campus that starts at the top of one of Tallahassee's famed seven hills, and rolls gently downward and westward across 340-odd acres of pines, palms and pecan trees.

Founded in 1857 as the Seminary West of the Suwannee, its heritage is evidenced in the wide range of architectural struggles to preserve history and keep up with modern times and air conditioning. Yet it still ranks as one of the South's last, few bastions of campus greenery—the kind that combines the blossoms of camelias, azaleas and dogwoods with moss-hung oaks that are, in some cases, as old as the University itself, if not older.

From the Gothic towers of Westcott at the eastern entrance to the campus, to the modern glass and steel structures of its Science Complex to the west, Florida State University has moved forward in time and growth more rapidly than many of its newer counterparts in the State University System. Its enrollment has quadrupled since it became coeducational in 1947, following nearly half a century as the Florida State College for Women.

Today, its 14 schools and colleges are spread through $150 million worth of buildings, its annual budget exceeds $100 million and it attracts more than $18 million a year in research contracts and grants. Students can pick and choose from more than 100 career options offered in arts and sciences, business, communication, criminology, dance, education, home economics, law, library science, music, nursing, social sciences, social work, theater and visual arts programs.

The University is a member of the Academic Common Market and has overseas study centers in Florence, London and the Panama Canal Zone. Summer programs of study are offered in law at Oxford, in hotel and restaurant administration in Switzerland, and in comparative studies of economic and social systems in Yugoslavia.

The location of FSU in the Capital City of Florida offers unusual opportunities for study and research in the social and policy sciences, and an optimum environment for internships and on-the-job learning experiences for students in many fields of study.

The University operates major laboratory facilities for nuclear, marine and computer research. In addition, it has a wide-ranging spectrum of institutes and research centers, each of which deals with specialized aspects of the following fields of study: government, geophysical fluid dynamics, molecular biophysics, educational research, American theater, gerontology, social research, community mental health, employee relations, economic development, analysis of resources and environment, Southern culture and religion, statistical consultation, educational technology and instructional systems, population studies, multi-campus systems, educational tax policy, urban and regional planning, criminological and correctional research, and the study of women in educational management systems. A Regional Rehabilitation Center serves citizens in the tri-state area with diagnostic and remedial treatment of speech and hearing problems.

A city within a city, Florida State has 1,200 faculty members, more than 6,000 additional employees and a construction program that will exceed $50 million between now and 1981. The construction of a new civic center and a center for continuing education—both near the State Capitol—are destined for completion by the fall of 1980.

DR. BERNARD F. SLIGER

President

Florida State University

Dr. Bernard F. Sliger, Florida State University's president since 1977, is one of the most ardent fans in Seminole sports history.

Known as "Bernie" to nearly all of the student athletes, Dr. Sliger makes no secret of his sentiments about athletics at Florida State University. He says he wants a "spot in the Top Twenty" for every Seminole team, including those who compete in the arenas of academe. And there's no one on campus prouder than he is of the records set in honor of that tradition last year by more than one team in each category.

In the men's intercollegiate seasons last year, the football, basketball and baseball teams were definitely "up there" and the golf, track and swim teams won Metro Conference championships. The Lady Seminoles proved to be state champions in swimming, volleyball and softball; won the regional championship in cross country; played in the regional finals in tennis and basketball; and earned the national indoor championship in track.

Although President Sliger now classifies himself as "an energetic spectator," during his high school days in his hometown of Trout Creek, Mich., he was a member of the basketball, track and football teams. He later returned to coach the latter two teams and teach math there, following a three-year tour of duty with the Army during World War II.

Dr. Sliger, who came to FSU as its executive vice president in the late spring of 1972, was formerly executive director of the Louisiana Coordinating Council for Higher Education. His background as an educator includes 19 years as a faculty member and administrator and sports fan at Louisiana State University.

An economist and scholar in the special fields of economic theory and public finance, he frequently serves as a consultant to private and public commissions, most recently as chairman of Gov. Reubin Askew's Economic Advisory Council. He was a member and chief consultant of the Governor of Louisiana's tax study committee in 1968, and served a year as Louisiana Commissioner of Administration and Chief Budget Officer. In the latter capacity, he had to oversee the costs of constructing Louisiana's Superdome.

Dr. Sliger is the author of a text on "Public Finance," first issued in 1964 and revised in 1970, and presently used in a number of colleges and universities.

He and his wife, Greta, have two sons and two daughters, Nan, Paul, Greta and Sten.

JOHN BRIDGERS Athletic Director

Since John Bridgers took over as Florida State's athletic director in the spring of 1973, the program has been on a constant upward trend.

The trend climaxed last year with startling results. Three Seminole squads—football, basketball and baseball—participated in post season events. Only one other school in the country was able to do the same. The basketball team was the regular season Metro Conference champion while the golf, swimming and track and field teams also won conference titles.

During his stay in Florida's capital city, Bridgers has also:

(1) instigated and worked to conclusion the cancellation of a $378,000 debt on Doak S. Campbell Stadium;

(2) been primarily responsible for Florida State's admission to the Metropolitan (Metro) Athletic Conference through his personal friendship with conference athletic directors;

(3) made the decision to schedule night home football games which has increased attendance to the record-breaking mark of 39,401 per game in 1977;

(4) scheduled Auburn, Georgia Tech, South Carolina and Tulane for football dates giving future Seminole schedules a more regional flavor;

(5) solicited additional funds through Student Government for construction of a new home baseball dugout, restroom, press box, concession stand and storage facility at Seminole Field;

(6) solicited additional funds and transfer of designated funds based on donor's evaluation which made possible the purchase of Coble Terrace, a student athlete housing facility, by the Florida State Foundation;

That is an imposing list of accomplishments for an athletic director who has been faced by the same general financial woes that beset the economy in general and intercollegiate athletics in particular nationwide. These problems were compounded at Florida State since the Tribe football program—the main source of revenue generation for the department—until last season had suffered through four consecutive lean years.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Bridgers came to Florida State from South Carolina. Previously he had spent 10 years as athletic director and head football coach at Baylor University, a period during which the Bears participated in three bowl games.

Following graduation from Auburn, Bridgers served two years with the Army in Korea, being discharged a captain after enlisting as a private.

Bridgers is married to the former Frances Young.

MARK CARLSON Sports Information Director

As sports information director, Mark Carlson is responsible for all publicity and public relations matters concerning the Florida State athletic department.

The sports information office distributes information on all intercollegiate sports. Carlson also supervises the football press box operations at home games and serves as editor for brochures distributed by the athletic department.

Carlson joined the Seminole administrative staff just prior to the 1976 season after a one year tour at the University of Tennessee—Chattanooga. His previous SID assignments included the University of Tampa (1972-75) and Tennessee Tech (1975). He was at Tampa when that school dropped its football program in 1975.

The Hibbing, Minn., native earned a bachelor's degree in political science from St. Leo (Fla.) College in 1969. Following graduation he joined the staff of the Fremont (Ohio) News-Messenger where he was sports editor for three years before assuming the Tampa position.

Carlson is a bachelor.

MIKE PARSONS Asst. Sports Information Director

Mike Parsons is in his second year as assistant sports information director at Florida State.

As an aide to sports information director Mark Carlson, Parsons works with promoting the FSU athletic teams through the media as well as editing TRIBE, the award-winning football game program, and the Seminole Sportsnews, a booster publication.

Parsons, a native of Charleston, W. Va., and a graduate of West Virginia University, came to Florida State after working three years as a sports information assistant for the Mountaineers. Previously he served as SID at Morris Harvey College in Charleston for two years and worked with several local newspapers and radio stations.

He took a temporary leave from his duties at WVU during 1976 to serve as publicity assistant for the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League during their summer training camp.

Parsons is married to the former Julie Brawley.

LARRY PENDLETON Assistant to the Director

Larry Pendleton is responsible for special events within the Florida State athletic department as assistant to athletic director John Bridgers.

Pendleton also oversees the guidance and counseling of all Seminole athletes throughout the year.

This is Pendleton's fifth season as a full-time member of the FSU athletic staff and his second at his present post. He returned to his alma mater in 1973 as a graduate assistant and spent the '74 campaign as an assistant football coach.

During the 1975 and 1976 seasons he served solely as academic advisor to football players.

A native of Winter Haven, Fla., Pendleton attended Florida State after earning 10 athletic letters at Lakeview High School. He played both linebacker and offensive line for the Seminoles where he was twice selected to the Florida collegiate all-star team, started 33 consecutive games and played in three bowl games.

Following his graduation from FSU in 1969, he was an assistant coach for three years at Colonial High School in Orlando.

Larry is married to the former Carolyn Chalk.

CLAUDE THIGPEN Athletic Business Manager

Claude Thigpen has been a member of the Florida State athletic department for 24 years. He assumed his current position as athletic business manager in 1974.

Prior to taking charge of the athletic department's fiscal affairs, Thigpen was the accountant and ticket manager for the Seminoles. He continues to supervise the complete ticket operation in addition to overseeing the budget.

Through the years, Thigpen and his staff have organized the entire FSU ticket operation. He directs the season ticket drives for four sports-football, basketball, baseball, and track and field.

Thigpen also has the added responsibilities of coordinating the team travel operations for the Seminole football squad. This includes making motel and transportation arrangements for the official party of nearly 100 that regularly travels with Florida State.

Thigpen, a native of Greenville, Fla., is married to the former Carleen Lindley.

OLD FOES RETURN TO CAGE SLATE

A rugged 10-game Metro Conference schedule plus games with old rivals Jacksonville, Florida and Auburn greet new Florida State basketball coach Joe Williams this winter.

Williams, a former FSU assistant, who accepted the head coaching position in March, will guide his club in a home-and-home series with Jacksonville while the Garnet and Gold has single games scheduled with Florida and Auburn.

In addition, the Seminoles will play home-and-home with their Metro Conference brothers and participate in two in-season tournaments before concluding the campaign with the annual Metro Conference Tournament at Memphis, Tenn., March 1-3.

FSU is slated to participate in the Dayton Invitational December 22-23 with the host Flyers, Penn State and Tulane. The Old Dominion Invitational at Norfolk, Va., finds the Seminoles competing with Old Dominion, Bucknell and Georgia Southern.

Williams plays the rugged slate with a squad that includes just one starter from last year's team that compiled a 23-5 record, won the Metro Conference regular season championship and advanced to the NCAA playoffs before losing to eventual champion Kentucky.

The lone returning starter is sophomore Tony Jackson, who led the Metro Conference in assists last season. Also back, however, are guard Mickey Dillard and forward Murray Brown, who played vital roles coming off the bench last winter.
